FOREWORD

This book is another example of the dedication and love of a very special man toward a school that has been such a large part of his life.

Mr. Akin first came to TSD in 1920 as a frightened young boy from the small country town of Copperhill. Since first arriving at TSD, Mr. Akin has only been away from his beloved school for the short five years that he spent at Gallaudet College.

It would be impossible to overstate the degree of influence for good that Mr. Akin has had on the hundreds of young deaf students he has had contact with during his 40 years of service to the Tennessee School for the Deaf.

Upon his retirement in the spring of 1978, Mr. Akin approached me to ask how he could be of service to the athletic program during his "retirement". I was very much aware of Mr. Akin's knowledge of the history of our school and felt this would be an outstanding opportunity for him to share this knowledge and to insure that this information would be available to all who had been a part of TSD's rich history as well as to all future generations of TSD Vikings!

Mr. Akin has given many hours to this detailed work and it will long be a source of information for those interested in the Athletic Program at the Tennessee School for the Deaf.

I have long called Mr. Akin "The Encyclopedia of TSD Athletics". He has now put this knowledge to print and we all can share in the rich history of TSD Athletics.

Troy Haydon

PREFACE

It has been my pleasure to have had the opportunity to compile three books dealing with the history of the Tennessee School for the Deaf. The first of these three books was entitled the 100th Anniversary of the Tennessee School for the Deaf, 1845-1945. As a member of the Centennial Publication Committee, I had the responsibility to prepare a pictorial history book in celebration of the one hundred years of existence of the school. In this book, I compiled old photographs and listed all students, staff, faculty members and employees. Among the different features in the book were fifty athletic pictures accompanied with a brief story on sports in retrospect.

The second book was A History of TSD Athletics, 1892-1976. It dealt specifically with the football and basketball game results copied from A History of Athletics at the Tennessee School for the Deaf. The latter was one of my three graduate problems in lieu of a thesis in partial fulfillment of requirements for my degree of Master of Science at the University of Tennessee in 1953.

This third book is entitled The TSD Athletic Almanac. It is composed of lists, game results, records and other items. It can be used as an information and reference book and could possibly be the most complete record of athletics at the Tennessee School for the Deaf.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Grateful acknowledgement is made for the assistance rendered by Mr. William E. Davis, Superintendent at the Tennessee School for the Deaf, in rolling out the welcome mat for me to use the facilities on campus for my historical research since my retirement in July of 1978.

Mr. Warren A. Flower, Assistant Superintendent, very kindly entrusted a master key to me in order that I could have access to the Herschel R. Ward Building and the Thomas S. Marr Library. This access was especially helpful during weekends and at nights when necessary.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to two very cooperative ladies, Mrs. Alberta Smith, Principal, and Mrs. Aline Hill, Supervising Teacher of the High School, for endorsing my interviews with some of their teachers. These teachers provided me with an abundance of information.

The greatest debt is owed to Director of Athletics, Health and Physical Education Troy Haydon for his invaluable assistance in my assembly and preparation of material upon which this book is based. At his urging, in the fall of 1979 I began one of the projects, compiling a list of varsity participants from 1892 up to the present.

I extend my appreciation also to the varsity coaches: Mrs. Barbara Flower, Mrs. Patsy Smith, Miss Jeanne Fair, Mr. Robert Matthews, Mr. Dick Hancock, and Mr. Dan Schlafer for furnishing such invaluable information as old and new records.

This book would not have been possible without encouragement offered by my wife Lucy whose understanding of my numerous long absences from home is greatly appreciated.

Among the many who contributed to the successful completion of this book and who are due my sincerest thanks and appreciation are deserving of special mention because of the nature and extent of the help they rendered:
